Regulations for the grant “Human Rights”

ARTICLE 1: OBJECT

1.1. The French Embassy in Türkiye supports civil society projects every year in accordance with its commitments for human rights and the sustainable development goals. In particular, this call is organised in order to support projects carried out by NGOs that contribute to gender equality in Türkiye.

1.2. We will pay attention to projects aiming to foster the following points of Universal Declaration of Human Rights by United Nations:

- Freedom of opinion and expression: Everyone has the right to freedom of opinion and expression; this right includes freedom to hold opinions without interference and to seek, receive and impart information and ideas through any media.
- Right of cultural and art: Everyone has the right freely to participate in the cultural life of the community, to enjoy the arts and to share in scientific advancement and its benefits.
- No discrimination: Everyone is entitled to all the rights and freedoms, without distinction of any kind, such as sex, political or other opinion, national or social origin, property, birth or other status.

In particular, we express continuing commitment and solidarity with the LGBT+ community and we will give a special voice to gender equality, especially through the following objectives:

- Ending sexual and gender-based violence;
- Economic empowerment, universal access to social and education rights;
- Bodily autonomy and sexual and reproductive health and rights;
- Women’s participation and leadership in politics and public life;
- Marginalized populations’ empowerment (refugee women, poverty, and disability).

1.3. They will raise public awareness on the objectives listed above; strengthen the technical capacities of civil society organisations; define strategies and / or disseminate good practices.

ARTICLE 2 – CONDITIONS

2.1. The project application for the Embassy of France in Turkey must be done in French or in English and automatically involves the acceptance of these regulations.

2.2. The selected projects will be granted between 5,000 and 15,000 euros each, for a total amount of 50,000 euros. The Embassy may decide to give a lower amount than what the applicant request.

ARTICLE 3 - ELIGIBILITY CRITERIA

3.1. Projects must start between 15 May and 15 November 2023 and must end before 30 November 2024. A financial and activity report must be sent to the French Embassy in Türkiye on this last date.

3.2. The analysis framework is based on 6 criteria: relevance, coherence, effectiveness, efficiency, impact, sustainability (over time).

3.3. Projects that will have a leverage effect to larger projects will be valued. The consideration of cross-cutting factors (Human Rights, Education, Environment etc.) will also be valued. As far as possible, the project must involve other local partners. The French Embassy will take into consideration the carbon footprint of the projects it finances. The projects will have to plan appropriate communication and transparency actions.

3.4. Only NGOs with a legal status can apply (Dernek, Vakıf, etc.).

3.5. The grant must not exceed 80% of the whole project budget and the operational costs (administrative costs (not directly related to the project), office equipment, and rent) must not outreach 20% of the whole project budget.

ARTICLE 4 – JURY

The jury will be chosen by the French Embassy in Türkiye. It will include members of International Organisations, members of French local institutions, academicians, etc.

ARTICLE 5 - APPLICATION PROCESS

5.1. The files of the candidate associations must be sent by email to the Cooperation with Civil Society Officer, at the address siviltoplum@ifturquie.org before April 1, 2024.

5.2. The documents to be provided are:

- Project proposal with budget (in English; template from the French embassy);
- Cover letter (in English or French; free format);
- Statutes of the applicant (Tüzük; a translation in French or English will also be requested).

ARTICLE 6 - PAYMENT OF ENDOWMENTS

6.1. A first decision of the jury will be given by the end of April 2024.

6.2. A grant agreement must be signed by the two parties (French Embassy in Türkiye and winning organisation) in order to release the grant.

6.3. The grant will be paid in euros or Turkish liras at the rate in force on the date of payment.

ARTICLE 7 – MODIFICATIONS

7.1. Any significant change affecting the objectives, partners, calendar or budget of a selected project must be reported and validated by the French Embassy in Türkiye.

7.2. Failure to comply with this clause, partial or full non-completion of the project may result in the reallocation of the funding granted or the full or partial reimbursement of the sums.

ARTICLE 8 - OBLIGATION OF THE WINNERS

8.1. At the end of its project, the winning associations commit to return to the Embassy of France in Türkiye a final report for which they will receive the template. These documents will be signed and be submitted by e-mail within two months after the end of the project.

8.2. The winning association authorizes the publication and use by the Embassy of France and the French Institute of Türkiye of its name, information relating to the funded project, intermediate and final reviews, photos, videos and waives collection any right or indemnity in this respect.
